DETAILED ACTION

Note: This is in response to an Amendment filed 02/15/2007.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1-9 and 11-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Chan et al. (U.S. 6,358,262).

Chan et al discloses the claimed invention in figures 1, 5, and 6, a round blade (26) mounted on the distal end of an elongated shaft (24) and a suction interface (92) mounted on the proximal end of the elongated shaft (24); wherein the suction interface (92) is for fluidly communicating with the suction source so as to provide a suction at the round blade (26). However, Chan et al does not disclose wherein the blade end of the elongated shaft (24) extends into the round blade (26) approximately on third to one half the diameter of the round blade (26). It would have been an obvious matter of design choice to make the blade end of the elongated shaft (24) extends into the round blade (26) approximately on third to one half the diameter of the round blade (26) as recited in claims, since such a modification would have involved a mere change in the size or dimension of a component. A change in size or dimension is generally recognized as being within the level of ordinary skill in the art.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed 02/15/2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 11, and 12 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Furthermore, In response to applicant's argument that the aperture (88) as described in Chan et al is for delivering fluid rather than suction as required by amended claim 1 and new added claims 11 and 12, a recitation of the intended use of the claimed invention must result in a structural difference between the claimed invention and the prior art in order to patentably distinguish the claimed invention from the prior art. If the prior art structure is capable of performing the intended use, then it meets the claim.

Conclusion

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
